4. RPL Community Table follow-up-despite the Snowy Weather, we still had 56 people past our table, and we actually ran out of City of Richmond maps-It was also suggested more would have come by the table if we had more blinking lights- Seedy Saturday reminder we are still looking for volunteers to help with the table there

5. Update from HUB on 2014 activities in Richmond-Lois gave us an update on which programs the City of Richmond would be funding in the Community-Elementary School Programs, New Immigrant cycling lessons and Tables for Both Spring and Fall Bike to work weeks.

6. Bike racks for businesses – update on draft letter sent to HUB-Lois to check with Alvin

7. Bike to shop-Hub seems ready to take this addition and add it to the end of Bike to Work Week. Richmond Hub to offer a table in Historic Steveston for first try. Other suggested sites included Terra Nova and Broadmoor as they are on bikeways/routes

8. Streetwise Cycling Course-It looks like we have about 6 people showing interest in the sign up sheet, we need 12 for the course to run.

9. Assessment ride(s) – No. 5 Road follow-up re report-Stephen/Will have been working on this Derek said he would proofread submission before we send it to the HUB office.

10. Media training-Derek participated in some HUB media training at the HUB office.

11. Colin Stein - Director of Marketing Communications & Campaigns-Derek discussed Colins role at HUB and some of the items in the works.

12. City of Richmond update-Derek-The Railway Greenway is due for it's Grand opening around Earth Day (April 22) Also set to open this year is the "Bike Skills park" at Garden City and Grandville Ave.

13. AGM-HUB office and Derek are trying to book the Accent Inn in Richmond for the AGM So the other members can venture out to Richmond instead of us having to ride out to hilly Burnaby.

14. Other business: Debbie to print out member emergency contact list for next meeting.

Seedy Saturday event: Thompson Community Centre from 10 to 1 on March 1st

Next meeting: Wednesday, March 26, 2014 at 7 pm
